

REDWOOD WRITERS

presents

ELIZABETH STARK

Secret to a Page-Turner:

The Fulcrum of Desire and Limiting Belief

December 9, 2018

What hooks your readers and won't let them go? Some people say plot, some say character, but it is where these elements are inextricably linked that we find the secrets to the most powerful of stories. Discover the authentic internal and external struggles—and the necessary relationship between them—that drive your character, your tale and your reader inexorably toward a conclusion no one can foretell and everyone has to reach.

Redwood Writers Monthly Meeting

When: December 9, 2018
2:00 pm Registration/networking
2:30 pm Announcements
3:15 pm Presentation

Where: Flamingo Hotel
2777 4th St.
Santa Rosa, CA 95405
(707) 545-8530

Fee: $5.00 Member
$10.00 Nonmembers

Food and door Prizes

Elizabeth Stark is the host of Story Makers Podcast (StoryMakersShow.com), author of the novel Shy Girl (FSG, Seal Press) and co-director and co-writer of several several films, including FtF: Female to Femme, a creative documentary and Little Mutinies, a short (both distributed by Frameline). She earned an M.F.A. from Columbia University in Creative Writing and has taught at the Pratt Institute, UCSC, St. Mary's, where she was the visiting distinguished writer, and elsewhere. She is currently producing a feature film called Lost in the Middle, and finishing a novel.

Elizabeth co-directs and teaches at BookWritingWorld.com and SonomaCountyWritersCamp.com.

<https://bookwritingworld.com/>

<http://sonomacountywriterscamp.com/>

Founded 1909

"writers helping writers"