

Welcome to The Redwood Salon

All that's missing is you...

The Redwood Salon offers a relaxed, supportive atmosphere to read your written work and to hear other writers read from their work. Bring your stories and poems to share. Readings are up to five minutes. The Redwood Writers hosted literary salon is held every other month. The Redwood Salon is a social setting to meet members and other writers, connect with your creative community of writing friends, and enjoy a potluck meal. It is fun and free! All members are welcome!
